

AFRICAN ECONOMIC HISTORY WORKSHOP, 25 April 2007
Final Programme

2.00-3.40: MARKETS AND STATES, 1800-1960

Karin Pallaver (Bologna), 'The Power of African Consumers: Analysing the Glass Bead Demand in Nineteenth-century East Africa, 1820-1900'

Marisa Candotti (Italy), 'States and textile production in the Sokoto Caliphate and Borno during the 19th century'

Gareth Austin (LSE), 'Colonial Rule, Globalization and Economic Development in British West Africa: the Importance of African Economic Agency'

Aldwin Roes (Sheffield), 'The Bourse du Travail du Katanga: "A parastatal recruitment organisation with monopsonistic powers"? State-capital Relations in the Mobilization of Katanga's Labour Power, 1910-1914'

3.55-5.05: AFRICAN RESOURCES AND BRITISH INTERESTS, 1918-1970

Paul Ashmore (Sheffield), 'Envisioning African Resources and the British World System, c.1918-1923'

Andrew Cohen (Sheffield), 'Copper and Politics: The Role of Mining in the Demise of the Central African Federation, 1957-1963'

Yomi Kristilolu (Essex), 'Business as usual: Britain, oil and the Nigerian civil war, 1967-1970'

5.20-7.00: DEVELOPMENT AND INSTITUTIONS SINCE INDEPENDENCE

Anne Booth (SOAS), 'West Africa in the Southeast Asian Mirror; the historical background to the great divergence post 1970'

Anna Bohman (Umeå), 'Institutional change in the Ghanaian water supply and wastewater sector since Independence'

Erik Green (Stockholm), 'The Lilongwe Land Development Programme in Malawi, 1967-1981'

Morten Jerven (LSE), 'National Accounts in Botswana, Kenya, Tanzania and Zambia – A Comparative Review of the Methodology and Evidence and the Implications for Growth Time Series'